J.C. Rico Band

Jesse Cassious, J. C., has been playing music and singing in church with his family since he was 4, and now his well-trained pipes can belt out anything — absolutely any type of song. Though Rico’s blood runs blue, he plays many different styles of music and the fans love it. This is one incredibly versatile band that plays “a little something’ for everybody” and has a lot of fun doing it.
